Privacy Policy

Our company takes the privacy rights of users of this website seriously and are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. Our policy is to collect as little information as possible and limit the collection to information that is crucial to our business and to offer a useful and competitive service to our users. If you do not agree and please do not use or enter our website or services. You can at any time disable the option of allowing cookies to be stored on your computer in the settings of your browser software, however we cannot guarantee that parts of our service will work properly when cookies collection is disabled.

What data do we collect?

Cookies

Cookies are text files containing small amounts of information which are downloaded to your device when you visit a website. Cookies are then sent back to the originating website on each subsequent visit, or to another website that recognises that cookie. Cookies are useful because they allow a website to recognise a user's device and we use this information to gather statistics about the usage of our site and service for example, number of daily users, from which country, at what time, using a specific device and if this user has visited our site before and preferred sections of our site.

Types of cookie

Strictly necessary cookies: These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the website. Without these cookies services you have asked for (like selecting a product for purchase) cannot be provided.

Functionality cookies: These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (such as your user name, language or the region you are in) and provide enhanced features. For instance, they may be used to remember your account details and personal preferences or provide services you have asked for such as rating a review or sharing via social media. The information these cookies collect may be anonymised and they cannot track your browsing activity on other websites.

Performance cookies: These cookies collect information about how visitors use a website, for instance which pages visitors go to most often, and if they get error messages from web pages. These cookies don't collect information that identifies a visitor. All information these cookies collect is aggregated and therefore anonymous. It is only used to improve how a website works.

Ad targeting cookies: These cookies are used to deliver adverts more relevant to you and your interests. They are also used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement as well as help measure the effectiveness of the advertising campaign. They remember that you have visited a website and this information is shared with other organisations such as advertisers.

The Cookies we use

Our own cookie - Strictly necessary cookie for site functionality

Google Analytics - Performance cookie. Allows for site statistics and usage information

Security

We take appropriate security measures to protect against unauthorised access to or unauthorised alteration, disclosure or destruction of data. These include internal reviews of our data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures, as well as physical security measures to guard against unauthorised access to systems where we store personal data.

Access your information

We do not store any personal information about you unless you have signed up for our service, contacted anyone at our company or in other way personally shared this information. To find out if we have any of your information please use the contact us section of our website for further assistance.

How to delete your information

You can at any time clear your cookies in the settings of your internet browser settings and we hold/store no other information about you.

Changes to this policy

Any changes to our Cookie Policy will be posted here. This Cookie Policy was last updated on 22 May 2018
